MAKE-A-WISH.

February 15, 2010

Mr. Adam Meyer
301 NW 84th Avenue, Suite 205
Plantation, FL 33324

Dear Mr. Meyer,

Sometimes words seem totally inadequate to express your gratitude to a person. This is one of those times. The Make-A-Wish Foundation of Southern Florida is so thankful to you for the fabulous gift you gave to our wish child, Emily and her family. The Super Bowl Club tickets would have been over the top for anyone, but then you just outdid yourself with the limo, the autographed basketball, the jerseys and the cash for souvenirs.

A wish can make a sick child's world a whole lot brighter and continue to bring solace during difficult times. For Emily, the chance to go to the Super Bowl was beyond her wildest dreams. As you probably found out during your meeting with her and her family, she is an absolute sports enthusiast. All of them had the most unbelievable day – one which they will not soon forget.

Thank you, once again, for giving this child the opportunity of a life time. Your generosity will always be remembered not only by Emily, but by our Foundation, as well.

Sincerely,

Karen E. Mullins
